About 2,000 troops left the LIEBEROSE training area by freight train and truck during a single week in November 1949.

Soviet Dr from FÜRSTENWALDE (V33), fraternizing with local girls, allege that new troops will enter the camp within the next three months (i.e., January-March 1950).

A total of 10,000-12,000 men left LIEBEROSE by rail (period not indicated), some via BERLIN (WH1), some via FRANKFURT/ODER, all proceeding to the FÜRSTENWALDE area.

About 4,000 troops departed the Russian Zone (specific origin not given) by truck through COTTBUS (A79). During October and November 1949 there was heavy eastbound furlough traffic through FRANKFURT/ODER to the USSR.

LIEBEROSE billets can accommodate 10,000-20,000 men.

The box cars of barracks material arrived on 12 December and was loaded onto trailer truck. It is probable that such material comes from a special lumber camp situated in the woods around DANKOWITZ (V51). The wood is driven to the COTTBUS (V51) railroad station, thence shipped by rail to LIEBEROSE.

c. There was heavy furlough traffic on the COTTBUS-FRANKFURT/ODER line. An NCO who was in a group of 20 NCO's wearing armored insignia and who
